NEWS FROM COUNTY OFFICE

TELEPHONE

We now have a mobile number 07530 295834 in addition to the landline number this is for texting purposes and you will not be able to leave an answer phone message on the mobile.

Please continue to leave voice messages on the landline. I will try to be in the office during the following times to take calls: Monday and Wednesday 1.00 – 3.00 pm and Thursday 7.30 – 9.30 pm and I will be there at other times as well so don't just restrict calls to those times previously stated.

DISCOVERY

Congratulations to the following members who have been selected for an international visit: Austria Homestay -

Stacey Bush, RYE Spring Seminar - Bob Dronfield.

ATTENDANCE AT COUNTY MEETINGS

At the F&M meeting it was discussed how best to get more member to the county AGM, any member, vice president, parent or interested people may attend, only members of membership age may vote unless they are on the executive committee. Could you please discuss this at your club and give some ideas to your rep or come along yourself to the next meeting. By attending county AGMS and meetings you get a say on how things are run, county is a number of clubs working together, so come and share your ideas.

County Competitions

DFYFC would like to thank all the judges and steward who have given up their time to enable the competitions to go ahead, also thanks must go to all the people who organise them.

Well done to Buxton who won the call me bluff competition, Bakewell 2nd and Ashover 3rd.

The Ladies Hockey took place on Sunday with Ashbourne first, Bakewell second, both will be representing Derbyshire at Skegness, Buxton was third.

The Club efficiency competition will now be run direct through county, please can clubs give Lorna Platts their programs.
